SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCING

Paideia fellows are eligible for scholarships during their studies at Paideia. The scholarship includes tuition-free studies, a study trip to Israel and a monthly stipend of approximately 800€ per month to cover rent and living costs. The number of scholarships is limited. A student's ability to be financially self-sufficient or to secure external financing will be considered as merit in the admissions process.

Are you applying for a scholarship provided by Paideia?

YES

If you will not be granted a scholarship from Paideia, would you be willing and able to take part in the program as a student without scholarship?

YES

Paideia can provide accommodation with a flat rate of approx. 400€/month

I am applying for accommodation provided by Paideia.
(The rent for a room will be deducted from the scholarship)

ELES Academic Scholarships for 120 ECTS Master's Degree in Jewish Civilizations

Paideia offers, through ELES, scholarships for students continuing their studies towards an MA degree at the Hochschule für Jüdische Studien in Heidelberg, leading to a 120 ECTS Master in Jewish Civilizations. These scholarships are given for both the studies at Paideia and the studies in Heidelberg. In order to apply for this scholarship you need to be an EU-citizen, have completed a BA, and apply to the MA program in Heidelberg according to Appendix I.

Are you applying for the ELES Academic Scholarships for 120 ECTS Master's Degree in Jewish Civilization? If yes, please fill in Appendix I.

YES (you need to submit documents according to Appendix I)
